The Chaburas Lekach Tov is a group from our community that has studied the masseches during the 30 days before Purim and has actively shared daily Gemora insights by way of an e-mail group. This project has been a tremendous success, and a hearty yasher koach to Dr. Ari Weintraub and Rabbi Josh Weinberger for launching, coordinating, and encouraging this wonderful project. The siyum will include words of bracha from chabura participant—Rav Sholom Kamenetsky.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

MATANOS L'EVYONIM

As always, Rabbi Steinberg will be collecting monies for Matanos L'Evyonim (gifts for the poor), to be distributed on Purim day. Checks can be made to the following organizations:

- CHASDEI ELIYAHU (Philadelphia needy)
- MLB CHESSED FUND (Needy B'nei Torah—USA)
- OD YOSEF CHAI (Needy Eretz Yisroel—USA)

The monies can be given to the Rabbi before, or on, Purim. Please note, though, that if you are giving on Purim, the earlier the better, so the respective organizations will have time to distribute the money before the day is over.

YIML MINCHA/MAARIV RESUMES!

This Sunday morning marks the beginning of Daylight Savings Time, and while that is a foolish piece of legislation, it does usher in the seasonal resumption of Young Israel's daily Mincha/Maariv minyan. Join us this coming week at 6:50pm (Taanis Esther and Purim excepted) and every week as posted.
