This Shabbos

Announcing a New Boys Group Shabbos Mornings at the Young Israel

Starting this Shabbos, Parshas Bo, a new weekly group will be meeting for boys aged 3rd–6th grades. Under the dynamic leadership of Sruly Biderman, this program will start at 9:00am in Room 101 at the Mesivta.

We will start by having the boys daven shacharis, then they will go into the main shul for laining. Between laining and mussaf, there will be a short d'var torah, and the opportunity for the boys to answer parsha questions and get some special treats—all back in Room 101. One important goal of this program is to give younger boys the opportunity to practice serving as chazzan in a low stress environment, and to help teach them the proper pronunciation of the davening, as well as familiarity with its classic tunes.

Questions? Please contact Sruly Biderman (ben.biderman@gmail.com).
